MERE BUDDHISM SAYS DR. TORREY OF SCIENTISTS

Declares Converted Buddhist
So Termed it After Hearing Its Philosophy.

Pilate's Predicament Confronts Every Man.

REVIVALIST AT AUDITORIUM.

"Buddhistic nonsense," is the phrase Dr. R. A. Torrey used to describe Christian Science at the Auditorium last night, and he related an incident, in which a high caste Indian lady friend of his was introduced to Christian Science, after that she had been converted from Buddhism.

He said a Christian Scientist in Boston informed her that he wished to acquaint her with a more advanced system of Christian philosophy, and unfolded to her the theory of Christian Science. As the exposition progressed his friend began to smile deprecatingly and finally commented: "That is all old to me. I was brought up on that philosophy. That is simply Buddhism."

He admitted that Christian Science has in many instances benefited the body, by, as he said, taking the patient's mind off his ailment, real or imaginary; but he insisted that there are people lying in their graves, who might have been alive today, if they had believed the evidence of their own senses and taken rational treatment for real diseases and injuries, instead of merely denying facts. "You can't eradicate by simply denying them," said Dr. Torrey.

Doctrine of Denial.
Denying a fact does not alter the fact. In this superficial twentieth century we have a very easy way of disposing of the facts we don't like to believe. We say, "I don't believe in hell," and they think that they have shut the gates of hell by saying that.

Men who don't want to believe in the Bible say, "I don't believe in the Bible," and they think they annihilate the book that has stood for nineteen centuries by saying that.

Men who do not want to believe in Christ say, "I do not believe in Christ," and they think by their not believing in Christ, they annihilate the Son of God.

Has it never occurred to you that a fact is a fact whether you believe it or not?

We have got some people in America that have become so possessed with the idea that denying a thing is quite sufficient to annihilate it, that they declare that there is no such thing as pain. They tell you not to believe there is such a thing as pain, and then you won't feel it. But when they go to the dentist and get into the chair they jump just as much as any one else! And in this foolish belief they are dying by the score, by the miserable madness of Christian Science, that dares to deny sickness, which exists as the same, and sweeps them into premature graves.

Denying a fact does not alter a fact, and denying Jesus is the Son of God does not alter the fact that He is the Son of God. It only makes you guilty of robbing a divine person of the honor that is His due. Listen! There are five indisputable divine testimonies to the deity of Jesus Christ.

In the first place, there is the testimony of the divine life He lived; for He lived as never man lived. Napoleon Bonaparte said, "I know men, but Jesus Christ was no (mere) man."

In the second place, there is the testimony of the divine words He spoke, for He spoke as never man spoke.

In the third place, there is the testimony of the divine works He wrought; not merely healing the sick, but cleansing the lepers, stilling the tempest, raising the dead, and feeding the five thousand by a creative act with five small loaves and two small fishes.

In the fourth place, then, is the divine attestation of the resurrection from the dead. The resurrection of Christ from the dead is the best proven fact of history.

Dr. Torrey's sermon last night was a continuation of the theme of the preceding night dealing with "What will you do with Jesus?"

Pilate's Predicament.

He related the episode in which

Balloon Record For Distance is Broken by Racers Who are Seen in Canada After Crossing the Lakes

One Sighted in Province of Quebec, 1,200 Miles From
Starting Point at St. Louis-- Others Came Down.

Quebec, Canada, Oct. 20.—A balloon, carrying two men, is reported today to have passed over Kiskadee, near Lake St. John, in Quebec province. It was traveling eastward. St. John is 1,200 miles from St. Louis.

Many Stay Up.
St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Six of the sky racers in the international classic, which started in St. Louis Monday, have, it is thought, sailed over Lake Huron, and Georgian Bay into Canada and are more than 700 miles northeast of this city.

The seventh survivor in the race, the Dusseldorf II, piloted by Hans Gerike, was last reported to have passed over Sutton Bay, Mich., and is believed to have crossed the eastern end of Lake Superior into Ontario.

Beyond a belt 100 to 200 miles wide, north of Lake Huron, Ontario, is a wilderness with few railroads. If the pilots bring their gas bags to earth in the forests it may be several days before they will be able to telegraph their landings.

The trip across Lake Michigan was made successfully by eight of the entrants. The balloon St. Louis No. 4 was forced to land near Hilman, Mich., after traveling 655 miles, because of lack of ballast to negotiate the flight across Lake Huron. With the Million Population club aerostat down, the hope of the United States winning the race rests in the American II, piloted by Alan R. Hawley.

The third balloon which is down is the Condor. It, like the Million Population club, did not attempt to cross Lake Michigan, and landed in Wisconsin, near Two Rivers. The balloons which came to earth have carried gas bags. The others have gas bags of rubber.

The record made by the late Oscar "Ereboch" in the 1907 race of 873.4 miles it is believed will be broken.

Frost Is Predicted

The predicted change in temperature came last night and the spring-like weather of yesterday was in decided contrast with the chill of this morning. Mercury dropped 10 degrees and the warmest temperature for today was three degrees lower than the lowest of Tuesday and Wednesday. Overcoats and wraps are comfortable and are much in evidence, to say nothing with the crackling of steam heat and the crackling of grate fires. Winter is believed to have come with the forecast for much colder weather to-night and frost in west Kentucky.

Prof. J. A. Carnagey, superintendent of the city schools, received a message today, announcing the death of his father, T. F. Carnagey, of Rantoul, Kansas, last Monday. The message was delayed and the news was not received until today. The funeral took place today. He is survived by two sons: Professor Carnagey, of Paducah, and Charles Carnagey, of Lawrence, Kansas, and two daughters in Ottawa, Kansas.

Electric Chair Is Built In This City

The electric chair that will be installed in the Eddyville penitentiary for the execution of the state prisoners sentenced to the death penalty is under construction at the mill of Sherrill-Russell Lumber company, Eleventh and Tennessee streets. The chair is being built according to the specifications of Captain E. W. Depp, of the Eddyville penitentiary, and he is in personal charge of construction. The chair is to be constructed of oak. The metal fixtures will arrive in a few days, and the chair can be completed quickly after that. Much interest is attached to the chair, because of the gruesome purpose for which it is constructed. All of the executions hereafter will take place at Eddyville instead of at the county jails.

FORMER BOSS, WHOSE QUARREL WITH GROVER CLEVELAND IS FAMOUS.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Former United States Senator David Bennett Hill, once governor of New York State Democratic organization, died at his home here early today. He was 67 years old. His bitter conflicts with the Grover Cleveland organization, culminated in Cleveland's abandoning New York state as his home, and taking up his residence in New Jersey.

Hill was once an aspirant for the Democratic presidential nomination. His famous expression, "I am a Democrat," was considered the last word in loyal partisanship.

YOUTHS RUN AWAY FROM CHARGES IN MARSHALL COUNTY

When They Hear That Mary
Blalock and Ethel Vinson
Have Returned.

George Tidwell, of Hardin, Before County Judge.

GIRLS WERE HIS SOLICITORS.

Murray, Ky., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—While George Tidwell, a married man of Hardin, was being examined, after being brought in here to answer charges made against him concerning Ethel Vinson and Mary Blalock, 14 year old girls, with whom he is said to have been in Lyon and Livingston counties, it is reported a half dozen young men of Hardin stole a handcar and started in the direction of Paducah, presumably frightened by the prospects of the girls telling all that has happened to them since they disappeared during the Calloway county fair.

The girls live at Brandon's Mill, this county, and came in to the fair. They went to Hardin and from there, it is said and went with Tidwell, who is an itinerant picture agent. He took them into Lyon and Livingston counties. He said he found them at Hardin and tried to persuade them to go home. When they would not, he took them with him to solicit. The girls said they intended going into southeastern Missouri.

The Blalock girl is the daughter of Robert Blalock. Ethel Vinson is an orphan. They promised when brought here last night to make a clean breast of everything. They said they were with Tidwell and he was brought here this morning and presented before County Judge Patterson. It is believed that several warrants will result from the disclosures made by the girls.

Fooks was the officiating minister. The church was attractively decorated for the event and the altar was banked with ferns and palms and formed a pretty background for the bridal party. The bride's only attendants were the three flower girls; Misses Flora Thomas, Bertha Huston, Mary Sue Ashley, who wore dainty lingerie frocks and carried baskets of roses. The pretty bride wore a becoming gown of grey satin and picture hat to correspond. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The church was filled with the friends and relatives of the popular young couple.

King Manuel, of Portugal, Arrives in London.

London, Oct. 20.—The crown this afternoon rested its prosecution in the trial of Dr. Crippen. Crippen immediately prepared to take the stand and it was expected he would deny all charges against him. It was not thought in the court room that the crown has made a very strong case.

Dr. Crippen, on the witness stand, this afternoon, gave his version of the disappearance of his wife, Belle Elmore. He revealed that the defense will try to prove Mrs. Crippen is not dead, but fled to America ostensibly to join Bruce Miller, of Chicago.

"I knew my wife was friendly with Miller," Crippen testified. "I often upbraided her for corresponding with him. She repeatedly threatened to leave me, saying that she could go to America and join Miller. I last saw her January 31."

VICTIM OF NIGHT RIDER OUT-RAGE DYING OF HIS INJURIES.

Metropolis, Ill., Oct. 20. (Special.)—Henry Bennett, exile from Dycusburg, Ky., where he was whipped by the night riders, is in a critical condition and is not expected to survive the night. His illness is due to the injuries and exposure of the night that he was whipped. His relatives have been summoned to his bedside. Bennett owned a large farm and was a tobacco rehandler in Dycusburg. On February 3, 1908, he was visited by the night riders. He was taken to his yard and was whipped with thorn switches. His barn was destroyed by fire. Bennett removed to Metropolis over a year ago, and now has a suit pending in the federal court for damages against his alleged assailants. Mr. Bennett has not been in his normal health since the attack upon him, and since August 22 he has been confined to his bed and his condition has gradually become worse.

CAB AND SWITCH ENGINE COLLIDE

LOVE PASSENGER JUMPS FOR LIFE—DRIVER KNOCKED OFF.

Vernon Crice, of Boston, Mass., a passenger in a one-horse cab, driven by George Hester, colored, of the Palmer Transfer company, had a miraculous escape from being killed at 10:30 o'clock this morning when a string of cars, "kicked" by switch engine, No. 199, of the Illinois Central, crashed into the cab at the railroad crossing at First street and Kentucky avenue. The cab was shattered and carried a distance of 20 feet south of the crossing; but Crice and Hester, and the horse escaped injuries.

Crice had ordered a cab and was on his way to the wharfboat to board the steamer George Cowling for Metropolis. Hester claims he did not see the approaching cars, which were hidden from view by those on the west track. He was knocked from his seat but away from the track and the passenger jumped for his life. Hester's right knee was bruised. The horse broke away from the shafts, escaping being struck. The cab was completely wrecked. Mr. Crice recovered from the shock in time to catch his boat.

Engine No. 199 was switching cars on the east track going south and at the time has just kicked a car past the crossing.

WALTER WELLMAN REACHES NEW YORK

BRUISED HAND AVIATOR'S ONLY WOUND ON VOYAGE.

He Made Nearly 900 Miles—No Regret Expressed for Lost Air Craft.

EQUILIBRATOR A FAILURE.

New York, Oct. 20.—Walter Wellman and his five companions were landed here this afternoon by the steamship Trent, which picked them up at sea after they had abandoned their dirigible balloon America and failed in the first attempt ever made to cross the Atlantic through the air. A bruised right hand, which Wellman carried in a sling, was the only physical injury that resulted from their long voyage of approximately 900 miles and a rescue the like of which is unknown to all history.

None of the aeronauts expressed regret for the loss of the America. They agreed that it had served its purpose and taught its lesson. All stand ready to renew the attempt as soon as Wellman and engineers find a way to conquer the difficulties that brought their first trip to its thrilling end last Tuesday morning, 400 miles southeast of Sandy Hook.

Standing on the deck of the Trent, clad in the same suit of khaki he wore when he and his crew launched the America last Saturday at Atlantic City, Wellman made this statement:

Future Plans Indefinite.
"We thought we could not get along without the equilibrator. Now we find out we could not get along with it. Our plans for the future are indefinite until we find something that will do what we thought the equilibrator would do."

The "equilibrator," to which Wellman attributes the failure of his voyage, was the series of tanks containing gasoline which floated in the water attached to the airship by a long rope. Its purpose, in addition to storing gasoline and serving as a wireless "ground," was to keep the balloon steady, compensating for the expansion and contraction of gas, due to changes in temperature, which would have made the America rise or sink erratically.

The America's experience proved that this floating tank, jerking at the delicately poised airship, made it impossible to steer or make headway in the desired direction and severely weakened the structure. To find another means of compensating for this unavoidable change in the volume of gas is the problem to which Wellman and his engineer, Melvin Vaniman, will now devote their attention.

The direct cause of abandoning the America was the exhaustion of the supply of gasoline, which had to be thrown out to save the ship. When the crew abandoned the balloon only enough was left to last about 24 hours.

This is Wellman's description of how he hurt his hand:

"While we were aloft in our life boat trying to reach the Trent, I tried to grasp a rope thrown from the steamer. In some way the rope got twisted about my hand and before I could get loose it nearly tore off my little finger and badly bruised the rest of my hand."

The comparative unimportance of the injury, however, was demonstrated by the fact that as Wellman said this, he held a cigar in his hand and was not obliged to let the member rest in a sling.

The others of the America's crew said they felt as well as ever and they looked it. They are: Melvin Vaniman, the engineer; J. Murray Simmons, the navigator; J. K. Irwin, the wireless operator; and Albert L. Loud and John Aubert, aviators.

Kitten Came Along.
There was also a gray kitten which was so pampered by the women passengers aboard the steamer that her sides bulged with feeding. She had made the air voyage as a nameless cat, but on board the liner was very promptly christened "Trent." She left the steamer on Mr. Vaniman's shoulder. Vaniman's companions said that even in the haste of preparing to leave the America the chief engineer made sure that there was enough air in the compartment of the life boat where the cat was stowed to make her comfortable.

A thick, gray curtain of fog hung over New York bay this morning and caused a postponement of the last scene of the drama in which Wellman and his crew were the chief figures. The Trent was forced to anchor off Sandy Hook and there she remained until early in the afternoon before the fog lifted enough to make it safe for her to come up the harbor.

Meanwhile a party of those nearest and dearest to the shipwrecked aeronauts had taken a tug and gone as far as the quarantine station to meet them.

Wives and Mothers There.

In this party were Mrs. Wellman, Mrs. Vaniman, Mrs. Leroy Chamberlain, Wellman's married daughter, and his three unmarried daughters, and Mrs. Sarah Loud, mother of Mrs. Vaniman and of Albert L. Loud. They had a long wait at quarantine, and it was not until 4:15 that Wellman descended the companionway from the steamer to the deck of the tug.

With tears in her eyes Mrs. Wellman embraced her husband and kissed him on both cheeks. The aged Mrs. Loud stood, weeping with one arm around her son and the other around her son-in-law, while Mrs. Vaniman, also in tears of joy, hung on her husband's arm.

The Trent was anchored off quarantine, awaiting the inspection of health and the revenue officers when the tug Dalselline, with the aeronauts' relatives, came alongside. Wellman was standing close by the rail with the members of his crew beside him. When the passengers, crowding about him, caught sight of the women aboard the Dalselline they set up a cheer, first for Wellman and then for Mrs. Wellman. Then somebody proposed three cheers for the cat, which viewed events serenely from Vaniman's shoulder.

He Threw His Arm Around Her.
After the Wellman party had boarded the tug Wellman stood with his arm about his wife and one of his daughters and joined those on board the tug in cheers for the Trent and her captain, Charles E. Down.

BLOW UP N. & W.

ABRAHAM EBY WANTED TO RAISE $45,000 QUICKLY.

Had Served One Year in Federal Prison and Was Nabbed at the Threshold.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20.—Charged with having planned to blow up the Norfolk & Western railroad at unprotected points, unless he was paid $45,000, Abram Eby, alias Adam Smith, was rearrested today as he was leaving the federal prison, where he had just finished a term of one year.

Eby was given a hearing before Judge Newman, of the United States district court, who issued an order for the prisoner's removal to Richmond, Va., to answer trial for his alleged declaration of war against the Norfolk & Western and President McCrea, of the Pennsylvania lines.

The threats made by Eby were contained in a letter addressed to President McCrea and a copy of which was included in the indictment found against him last April. While he expresses no particular grievance, he sets forth clearly how he will go about the destruction of the railroad property by dynamite.

Mosquito Poisoning.

The pestiferous mosquito is holding high carnival in the city tonight; neither screen nor bar excludes him from the bed-chamber; he seems to permeate the cracks and crevices and sing his nocturnal lullabies 'till we are exhausted and lose consciousness in sleep, when he gives us a hypodermic injection of malaria and other diseases according to his venom; from these conditions there is no escape; oil on ponds and gutters, now will not save us from this disease breeding and death dealing monster; but it is a pleasure to know that, while Hays Specific will not save us from these conditions, it will cure us of these poisons by purifying the blood and removing the cause for chills and fever.

SNOW IN COLORADO.

Trains Blocked in the Mountain
Passes Where Fall Is Heavy.
Denver, Oct. 20.—Snow was reported from all parts of Colorado today.

In the mountain passes above Tolland, Col., snow from eight to ten feet deep was reported and trains were blocked. Snowplows will open the line. In Denver the fall was light.

To read one of his love letters a year after he wrote it is beyond the heroism of any man.

Feet So Sore
Couldn't Walk Down Stairs

TIZ Cured Her Quick.

If you have sore feet, tired feet, sweaty feet, lame feet, tender feet, smelly feet, corns, callouses or bunions, read what happened to Mrs. Crockett, of Jeffersonville, TIZ DID IT. Mr. Crockett says: "After the second treatment she walked downstairs one foot at a time. She has not been able to walk downstairs before in past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes." No matter what ails your feet or what under the heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIZ. It's different. It acts right off. It cures sore feet to stay cured. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all of the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. You will feel better the first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER solves the difficulty. You can leave the windows in a room open all day in winter, and when you close them apply a match to a Perfection Oil Heater and heat the room to any temperature you desire in a few minutes.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font.

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

DAMAGE SUITS FOR DIRECTORS

CHARGE GROSS MISMANAGEMENT OF AFFAIRS.

Ask $10,000,000 Damages and Demand Accounting to All Main and Subsidiary Lines.

AS SUBPOENAS ARE SERVED

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Unexpected excitement was furnished at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central railroad. Attorney Maxwell Edgar, who held proxies from an independent committee, including Secretary Franklin MacVeagh of the United States treasury, made charges of gross mismanagement of the affairs of the railroad company. Almost simultaneously deputy sheriffs served subpoenas on the officers of the road to appear in a $10,000,000 damage suit brought by Attorney Edgar.

Only the precept of the suit was filed. It was marked suppressed for service. The defendants named are: James T. Harahan, Cornelius Vanderbilt, R. W. De Forrest, R. S. Lovett, John Jacob Astor, J. Ogden Armour, Charles W. Peabody, John G. Shedd, Alexander H. Hackenstaff, Walter Luttig, John W. Auchincloss and Robert W. Goebel.

Say Reports Not Correct.

In addition to the plea for $10,000,000 damages, the suit, which is brought "for the use of the Illinois Central Railroad Company" against the directors of the corporation, also demands an accounting of all the road's finances, both of the main line and the subsidiary lines. The principal allegation on which the suit is based is that the annual reports are not correct and that the directors are responsible for losses which the road is alleged to have sustained.

The Park Row station, where the stockholders' meeting was held, was surrounded by deputy sheriffs, placed there to guard against any attempt to evade service which might, it was feared, be made by Eastern directors.

Mr. Edgar introduced a resolution to the stockholders demanding an investigation of the conduct of the road's affairs by the directors and officers. It was lost by an overwhelming vote of 784,160 shares against 641.

Leman Asked to Be Excused.

Mr. Edgar stated that he represented 60 shares of stock and also a special committee of stockholders, including Secretary MacVeagh, A. Montgomery Ward, Joseph Coleman and Henry W. Leman. Mr. Leman, who was one of the stockholders who fought for the retention of Stuyvesant Fish as president of the road a few years ago, arose in the meeting and asked to be excused as a member of the committee which Mr. Edgar said he represented.

After the visit of the deputy sheriff with the summons, Mr. Edgar presented another resolution asking that the stockholders agree on a civil suit for an accounting of sums alleged to have been lost to the road through dealings in which the late Ira G. Rawn appeared. The resolution was voted down, as was another resolution asking that suit be brought against C. A. Peabody and A. G. Hackenstaff to recover on bonds of $50,000 and $100,000.

The actual business of the meeting was to re-elect as directors for four years J. T. Harahan of Chicago and Cornelius Vanderbilt and Henry W. DeForest of New York. In the course of time, the election was brought about.

With the exception of Mr. DeForest, Robert S. Lovett and Robert W. Goebel, all the Eastern directors were present and were seceded with subpoenas. Gov. Deneen, who is a director, ex-officio, and who attended the directors' meeting, did not attend the stockholders' meeting. He is not named in the suit.

WHAT'S THE USE

To Keep a "Coffee Complexion."

A lady says: "Postum has helped my complexion so much that my friends say I am growing young again. My complexion used to be coffee colored, muddy and yellow but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl."

"I was induced to try Postum by a friend who had suffered just as I had suffered from terrible indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells."

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would not last. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place."

"I had drunk coffee all my life. I suspected that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again."

"There's a reason."

FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

JURIST IS A DEMOCRAT FROM LOUISIANA BENCH.

Root's Name Has Not Failed to Attract Attention as Possible Successor of Moody.

New York, Oct. 20.—It was learned here that among the candidates for chief justice of the United States supreme court, whom President Taft is considering, is Justice Edward Douglass White. Justice White is being strongly urged for the place, and President Taft is giving serious attention to the recommendations. Justice White was appointed to the supreme court from Louisiana and is a Democrat. On the whole, the president is considering both Senator Root and Justice White for the highest honor of the supreme court bench, he has not yet given up the idea of appointing Justice Hughes chief justice. Some time ago it seemed that Justice Hughes was to be appointed without doubt, but the fact that he is seeking opinion, both as to Justice White and Senator Root is taken to indicate that the president has not made up his mind absolutely one way or the other, and is still open to conviction.

None of the supreme court appointments will be made until congress meets in December. Therefore the fall campaign and Senator Root's participation in it and the question of whether or not a Democratic legislature is elected in New York state will not enter into the president's consideration as affecting Senator Root.

An Expert's Opinion.

A student in a medical college, while learning the use of the ophthalmoscope, was told to examine a man's eye and report upon the condition of it. The doctor-to-be adjusted the instrument and looked long and searchingly into the subject's left optic.

"Most remarkable," he ejaculated, with a surprised look. Readjusting the ophthalmoscope, he again carefully scrutinized the eye. "Very extraordinary, indeed," he exclaimed. "I never heard of such an eye. This must be some new disease. Have you ever had an expert's opinion on it?"

"Once," was the laconic reply. "The man who put it in said it was a fine bit of glass."—Tit-Bits.

Daily Thought.

It is never the question of how much we can do with our own hands, or our own lives; it is always a question how much we are willing to let God do with them.—Anon.

By the bye, what has become of the prosecution of city officials, who were alleged by the News-Democrat to have sold articles to the city. It told us that County Attorney Clay would place the matter before the grand jury in September. The grand jury has adjourned without any report on the subject. Two of the Democratic candidates for aldermen were accused by the News-Democrat.

AS TO REPAIRING COUNTY ROADS.

We were delighted to observe the statement in the morning paper last week that the county road supervisor is getting through with repairs to roads damaged by the rain of two weeks ago. This will give him time, perhaps, to mend some roads that were damaged a year or more ago. A personal trip out Broadway and over the road to the tuberculosis sanatorium revealed gullies that had been washed out and ground out months ago. A blind man could tell when he reaches the city limits, going out Broadway.

THE BEST PRISON TEST.

Judging from the interview had with Col. Mott Ayer upon his return from the prison congress, Kentucky has the best board in the world, but Governor Willson did wrong in vetoing the appropriation of the board wanted with which to build more prisons. That was the opinion of Senator Mike Taylor, too, whose efforts to secure the appropriations were recognized by the board with the appointment to a job, though Senator Mike vehemently protested before the legislature adjourned that rumors of his impending appointment were false. The Russian representative at the congress also declared that Russia has the most humane and modern prison system in the world; so a board of referees will have to be appointed to decide, which has the best prison system, Russia or Kentucky.

A BAD LAW.

There are many inquiries connected with the fee system, but none we know of are fraught with more possibilities of evil than the law, which gives prosecuting attorneys a division of fines. Recently a half dozen or so bawdy house keepers were indicted, and submitted to an agreed fine of $50, of which the prosecuting officers get three-fourths. We do not contend that the laborer is not worthy of his hire. If that is the way the law says they are to get their pay, we have no objection to their drawing it that way, but we say the law is a bad one.

We shall agree to every good thing anybody wishes to say about our prosecuting officers in the circuit court of this county; we do not even hint that they are not above suspicion; but in the hands of bad men such a law could be made prolific of graft.

Consider,—those men have access to the grand jury room and have great weight with the grand jurors in returning indictments. Supposing they simply desired to make money for themselves by securing indictments against the women, forcing them to submit to nominal fines, and then pocketing the major part of the fines. Who is benefited?

It will not do to say the women are doing an unlawful thing, and therefore are entitled to no sympathy. The fines do not interfere with their business, but make them only the more active to earn back the amount they are mulcted. It does the state no good; because the state doesn't want their money; it wants them to stop their business. A division of their earnings with the county prosecuting officers is, after all, about what it amounts to for all practical purposes. Of course, the notoriety exposes to the public the fact of their existence, if any benefit will flow from that.

Any law that makes it profitable for an official to find a citizen guilty of an offense and to compromise the penalty by an agreement with the accused is a bad law, regardless of how virtuous the officials chosen to enforce it.

Something in That.

Louisville is making a laughing stock of itself by the rumors over the census figures. The trouble with Louisville is that the directory people every year make Louisville have about 40,000 more citizens than it really has, so that the straight figures startled and disappointed the city. Then they announced a plan to send somebody to Washington to look at the books. Uncle Sam ought to take that officious ambassador by the seat of the pants and the nap of the neck and throw him over the monument.—Third District Review.

Heard in the Lobby

Two crops of grapes in one season is the record attained by Oscar Rawlinson, who resides on the Benton road. This year his grape vines had a plentiful supply of the fruit. It was gathered and nothing unusual was noticed until a few weeks ago when blooms were seen, and now the vines have the second crop of grapes.

Judge E. Barry, formerly of Benton, writes The Evening Sun from Columbus, Tex., where he is publishing a newspaper, that he has also just purchased a paper at Fort Stockton, Tex., and his daughter, Mrs. Blanche Barnes, is publishing it. Texas and its people have been very kind to the judge and his family. Both of his newspaper properties are flourishing and the judge has been honored in many ways by the people of Columbus. It is his intention to go to Stockton himself in April, as the climate is ideal. All of his family and Mrs. Barnes have been much benefited by the climate and are in good health.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Indian War Veterans.
To the Editor: Dear Sir:—We desire to communicate through the columns of your valuable paper, to obtain the names and addresses of those who served in the United States and Volunteer service after the Civil war until 1883 against the hostile Indians on the western frontier, in order that their names and records may be placed on the books of the association so that they may benefit by the act now pending before congress, as soon as it becomes a law. The National Indian War Veterans, an organization with headquarters at 1643 Market street, Denver, Col., at their last regular meeting, decided to send two delegates, Henry Hegwer, the national commander, and C. R. Hauser, the national secretary, to Washington, D. C., to inaugurate a vigorous campaign for the purpose of procuring pensions for those noble and brave soldiers who defended the frontier in the early days, and who have so far been unjustly neglected by this government, whose great western empire they so valiantly protected, making it possible for this generation to develop its unlimited resources and live in peace and prosperity. Yours very truly, Henry Hegwer, National Commander, Indian War Veterans, 1643 Market street, Denver, Col. C. R. Hauser, National Secretary, 1643 Market street, Denver, Col.

Following a period of consciousness yesterday morning, Harold Leigh, the thirteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Q. C. Leigh, of Chicago, suffered a relapse yesterday afternoon and died at the hospital, where he had been for two weeks. He was injured in a collision with an automobile while riding a bicycle. His skull and an arm were fractured.

He had been unconscious for some time, but yesterday shortly before death he rallied and talked to members of the family. IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

De Bard-Foss.

A beautiful wedding in Paducah, N. Y., that has its especial interest here was that of Miss Eunice De Bard, a gracious and charming Tennessee girl, now living in Paducah, and Mr. Howard Coburn Foss, formerly of Paducah. Mr. Foss is exceedingly popular in Paducah and his lovely bride was an attractive visitor here on several occasions, the guest of Miss Mary Scott, 725 Madison street. It was in Paducah the courtship began that culminated in the brilliant wedding ceremonial and attendant events as noted by the Paducah papers:

The First Presbyterian church of Paducah has rarely if ever, been the scene of a more beautiful picture than the one presented on Saturday evening, when Miss Eunice De Bard, formerly of McMinnville, Tenn., and Mr. Howard C. Foss, of Boston were united in marriage. The church, which in itself is very handsome, was beautifully decorated in Autumn leaves and cut flowers, making a lovely background for the wedding party. An elaborate musical program was given before the ceremony, following the organ prelude. Mrs. R. C. Manderville, sang "Because I Love You," then "Love abiding" was sung by Mr. J. W. Routh. The next selection was a duet "Still As the Night," by Mrs. Manderville and Mrs. Wright. Mr. Hans Victor gave a violin solo and just preceding the wedding march Mrs. Wright sang, in her lovely soprano voice, "Because God Made Them Mine."

Lohegrin was used as a processional. First entered two groomsmen, Mr. W. K. Wells and E. B. LaRoche, of Charleston, S. C., advancing down the side aisles followed by two bridesmaids, Miss Frances Kilborne and Bertha Patterson of Ohio, coming single down the central aisle. Then, Mr. J. S. Mann, of North Carolina and Mr. J. W. Routh followed by Miss Minnie Edgar of Wilmington, Del., and Katherine Willis, of Ohio. The matron Mrs. Freeman, formerly Miss Nicholson, of Alabama, came next, then the maid of honor Miss Eunice Clark of Hartford, N. Y. Little Allen Grant preceded the bride carrying the ring in a calla lily. The bride entered with her brother Mr. Davis M. DeBard and was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Douglas Bagby of Paducah, Ky. Rev. J. F. Fischen performed the ceremony.

The French color scheme of pink and blue was carried out in the bridesmaids' costumes, which were pink satin veiled in blue chiffon made after a French model. They carried French bouquets of pink and blue carnations tied with pink tulle. The bride wore a becoming gown of all blue and carried pink roses. The matron wore pink erpe, trimmed in pearl and gilt and carried roses.

The bride was never fairer than in her wedding gown of Duchess satin with an over dress of embroidered chiffon caught over the court train with bands of white maribon. The bodice was made of Venetian lace. Her veil was held by a diamond brooch, the gift of her father to her mother on their wedding day, the 15th of Oct. 27 years ago. She also wore a diamond and pearl necklace, the gift of the groom.

A wedding reception was held in the spacious colonial parlors of the Alberger. In the dining room was the bride's table, having for a centerpiece the trinket cake, from which the bride party drew wedding emblems attached to pink and blue ribbons. Refreshments were served buffet style, the loaves and cakes being in bridal emblems. Miss N. Nicholson kept the wedding register.

A handsome collection of wedding gifts was received.

The gift of the bride's mother was a beautiful chest of hand embroidered linen and the bridegroom's mother gave a handsome set of Haviland china. The bride's brother gave a chest of silver.

The bride's gift to her maids were silver monogram belt pins. The groomsmen received pearl scarf pins and the ring bearer gold cuff links.

Mrs. DeBard, the bride's mother was dressed in black satin with an over dress of steel beaded chiffon with touches of blue velvet and silver passementerie, studded with turquoise, with a large black hat with grey willow plumes. The bride's gown was a heavy Manilla cloth in shades of brown, with a Persian blouse trimmed in brown velvet and buttons. A hat in two shades of brown velvet with contrasting wings.

Mr. and Mrs. Foss left for New York after a stay there and in Boston they will be at home at 51 Park street, Sydney Nova Scotia, Canada.

The DeBard-Foss bridal party was entertained on Friday night after the rehearsal at the home of Mrs. E. Daniels. Music was enjoyed and buffet refreshments were served.

Class Entertained.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. M. B. Harper was delightfully entertained.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY

How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add ½ pint of warm water, and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready-made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

M. Bourne, best man; groomsmen: Messrs. Louis Rieke, Jr., Charles Alcott, Nolen Van Culen, William Hendrick and ushers: Messrs. William Eke, William Rudy, Herbert Hawkins, Richard Rudy.

Rev. W. A. Fite, pastor of the church, will officiate, and Mrs. F. N. Burns will preside at the organ. The bride will be accompanied by Messrs. Robert Scott, F. N. Burns, R. D. McMillen, Evert Thompson.

Following the church ceremony a wedding reception will be given at the Woman's club house from 9:30 until 11 o'clock.

The out-of-town guests for the wedding are: Mrs. Wade Childress, of St. Louis; Mrs. Jefferson D. Rowlett, of Murray; Mrs. Lella B. Jackson, of Greenville, Miss.; Mrs. Carl Scholz, of Chicago.

Pretty Tea for Bride.

Beautiful in its appointments was the afternoon tea given by Mrs. L. S. DuBois and Mrs. Allen M. Ashcraft on Wednesday from 3 until 5 o'clock to introduce Mrs. George Stanley DuBois, a gracious and charming bride, to the DuBois home, on Fountain avenue, looked most attractive in its effective of gorgeous dahlias gave a charming effect. The double drawing rooms were in the white and green motif, the airy white cosmos being used in profusion with the graceful smilax and ferns. The dining room was attractive in white and yellow. The tea table was veiled in a handsome lace cover with a tall crystal vase of yellow and white Japanese chrysanthemums effectively arranged in the center. Silver candlesticks with yellow-shaded candles were on diagonal corners and garlands of smilax outlined the table. The delicious salad course luncheon and confections carried out the pretty color tones.

Little Miss Edith Sherrill welcomed the guests at the door. In the reception hall Mrs. L. S. DuBois was assisted by Mrs. J. H. Ashcraft and Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler.

TORREY'S SERMON

Pontius Pilate tried to get Christ off his hands. He said Pilate was afraid to condemn Christ, because he knew Him to be innocent, and he was afraid to set Him free because of the mob.

So he told the mob to judge Him by their laws. The mob replied: "We have a law and by that law He should die; but we have not the power of life or death."

So Christ was again on Pilate's hands.

Then Pilate heard that Christ was a Galilean and Herod was the tetrarch of that province. So he sent Christ to Herod, congratulating himself that he had wriggled out of a predicament. But soon he saw Christ coming back from Herod, and once more he had to decide what to do with Jesus.

Then he remembered that about the time of the Passover, one prisoner, whom the people should choose, was set free, and he thought to trick them into setting Jesus free. He offered them Jesus or Barabbas. Now, Barabbas was the most depraved and vicious prisoner he had, and he supposed they would not dare for their own safety to choose Barabbas. But the mob cried, "Give us Barabbas," and once more Pilate had Jesus on his hands.

"Every man and woman here must decide tonight as Pilate did."

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

"People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance; but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alternative."

Can any "lung sick" person afford not to take the Alternative? It sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power. Often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.

Investigate it, if you are broad minded enough to believe that there can be a cure for Consumption which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows:

Weldon, Ill. Gentlemen: "During 1907, my chest sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die. I heard of Eckman's Alternative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."

(Signed Affidavit) ARTHUR WEBB, Eckman's Alternative cures Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence. For Sale by all leading druggists and List Drug Co., in Paducah.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using sage is that it is a preparation for making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it soiling quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the addition of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.

what he or she will do with Jesus," said Dr. Torrey.

You must accept Him or reject Him. If you do not definitely accept Him, you definitely reject Him. If a sinner should plead for a lady's hand, and she, not desiring him, but wishing not to hurt his feelings, should say, "I cannot accept you, but I do not reject you," she would make herself ridiculous.

Christ demands that you acknowledge him openly or deny him. He said whoever acknowledges the Son before the world shall be acknowledged openly in Heaven, and whose ever denies the Son, shall be openly denied.

Failure to acknowledge Christ openly is denial, and no quibbling will get around it.

Christ, knocks at every man's heart, and one of two things must be done: he must either be admitted or refused admittance. He can not share the heart with other things.

Who is Jesus?

There is no question that Jesus Christ claimed to be divine; no competent student will deny that He claimed to be divine. Well, then, He was one of three things: He was either divine, as He claimed to be, or else He was the most audacious impostor the world has ever seen, or else He was the most hopeless lunatic the world has ever seen. He must have been one of these three.

"Now, one other line of thought, and that is who this Jesus is with whom we have to do. Who is He? In the first place, He is One whom God hath appointed and anointed to be your King."

We read in Acts ii, 36, "This same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, God hath made both Lord and Christ" (that means anointed King).

Jesus of Nazareth is your divinely appointed and divinely anointed King. If you reject Jesus Christ you reject your divinely appointed King; if you deny Jesus Christ out of your heart, you shut your divinely appointed King out of your heart, and if you take your stand against Jesus Christ, you take your stand against your divinely appointed King.

And you are guilty of—listen—high treason! Men and women, I charge every man and woman in this building tonight—I care not what position in society you hold—I charge you, I indict you, every man and woman, every man and woman in the building out of Christ, of high treason against Heaven's King, and if you got your just deserts you would die.

One day in Maryborough, over in Australia, a fine looking man came to see me, an unusually fine looking man, with splendid physique and dome-like forehead. He said, "I want a talk with you," and I said, "Very well, take a seat, sir."

He said, "I don't know about your preaching. Now I am a moral, upright man, and no one can deny it. I would like you to tell me what you have against me."

I said, "Are you a Christian?"

"No, sir," he replied.

"Have you taken Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and surrendered your life to Him as your Lord and Master, and confessed Him as such before the world, and given your life to Him?"

"No, sir," he replied.

"Then," I said, "I charge you, sir, with high treason against your King. Jesus Christ is your King; God made Him so; and I charge you, sir—and I looked him right in the eye—"I charge you, sir, with the crime of high treason against your King."

And a dark cloud came over the man's face as he got up, and, going out of my room, he said, "Good afternoon," and walked away.

Months passed away; we had been over to Tasmania and conducted a mission there, and had returned, and I was preaching in Ballarat, about 40 miles away from Maryborough. After the service a fine looking man came to me and said, "Do you remember me?" I knew his face, but I could not remember where I had seen him.

I said, "I have seen you somewhere, but I cannot place you."

He said, "Do you remember ever charging a man with high treason?"

I said, "I have charged many a man with high treason."

"Yes," he said, "but do you remember charging any specific man with high treason?"

Then he began to tell me his story, and I commenced to gather who he was.

He said, "I am the man, and I have come to Ballarat, sir, to tell you that you will never charge me with high treason again," and he held out his hand, and I held out mine, and he took mine in his mighty grip—and it was a mighty grip!

He said, "Down!" and he dropped on his knees, and I dropped on mine, and he said, "Lord Jesus, I hand in my allegiance; I give up my treason; I take Thee as my King."

You men ought to do it tonight. He is your King, and every man and woman among you that does not accept Him and acknowledge Him as such tonight I charge you with high treason against Heaven's King.

But He is more than your King—He is the Son of God. He is a divine Person, and if you reject Him you are guilty of rejecting the Son of God; if you deny Him, you are guilty of denying the Son of God; if you shut Him out of your hearts, you are guilty of shutting the Son of God out of your hearts; if you take your stand against Him, you are guilty of taking your stand against the Son of God.

A Solemn Moment.

It is a more solemn moment and a more awful crisis for you tonight, for you know better who Jesus is. There you sit, and there stands Jesus again, unseen, but there He surely stands, in all the dignity and beauty of His perfect manhood; there He stands in all the glory of His perfect Deity; there He stands in all the wondrousness of His matchless love, crowned with thorns, and with pierced hands. And there you sit, trying to decide what to do with Him. In your heart there are higher voices and lower voices. There is the voice of the Spirit of God, which says, "Accept Him; confess Him; take your stand on His side tonight." There is the voice of conscience, which says, "Accept Him." There is the voice of gratitude, which says, "Accept Him." Everything that is noble and good and true in you says, "Accept Him; confess Him; let Him into your heart; take your stand on His side."

But, alas, there are lower voices of cowardice, the fear of what people will say, which says, "Reject Him tonight; take your stand against Him." There is the voice of avarice, the greed for gold that might slip through your fingers if you became a real Christian and that says, "Reject Him." There is the voice of lust, low and beastly, that says, "Reject Him." There is the voice of low political trickery, which says it will rob you of influence in your political party if you become a Christian, and that says, "Reject Him." Everything that is low and base and mean and devilish in your heart says, "Reject Him; deny Him; shut Him out of your heart; take your stand against Him."

Men and women, which are you going to listen to? What are you going to decide? God help you to decide right tonight!

WM M'EWAN

Will Repeat

"The Holy City"

TONIGHT

A Great Song

By a

Great Singer

Mr. William McEwan will sing "The Holy City" at the Auditorium meeting tonight. This is by special request. Mr. McEwan's singing has taken the city by storm, and the playing of Miss Anderson at the piano is remarked as wonderful by musicians. Last night Mr. McEwan sang Mrs. Williams' great song, "Come Unto Me." After the sermon he sang another favorite, "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

The attendance at the morning meeting today showed the result of the special effort put forth yesterday and the services of prayer. A great many more than usual attended, and will be tomorrow, the places being announced each evening. Tonight Dr. Torrey will speak on "A Sad Utterance." This will be an important subject.

Jacoby's Class.

"How to Deal With the Indifferent," was the subject of the Rev. W. S. Jacoby's address to his class of personal workers this morning at the Auditorium.

At the outset the Rev. Mr. Jacoby defined the indifferent person as one being so busily occupied with worldly things that he has no time to think of God. As a result he is careless and neglects the latter. In order to arouse this kind of people the speaker said they should be taken to the word of God and be convicted of their sins. Five points were emphasized by Mr. Jacoby.

First he showed the character of the man and said that he is a sinner because God says all of us have sinned. In the second point Mr. Jacoby showed the condition of such a man, using John viii, 34, as his reference—"Whosoever committeth sin is a servant of sin." A servant, said he, is interpreted as a slave, and the sinner is a slave to sin. The master of sin, he said, is the devil; and, therefore, the sinner is a slave to the devil.

Mr. Jacoby showed that the sinner has no peace; for God says that there is no peace for the wicked. The sinner is under the curse of the broken law and God says, "cursed is everyone who continueth not in all things written in the book of the law."

In the third point Mr. Jacoby showed that the outlook for the sinner is death—eternal death and separation from God. He quoted the old adage—"the wages of sin is death."

Mr. Jacoby showed the destination in his fourth point, telling that every one must appear before God on the judgment day.

Then as in the fifth and concluding point, he told of the doom of the sinner, which is Hell. Mr. Jacoby said this point causes many people to swerve and switch and to question the meaning of Hell. Mr. Jacoby said he believes there is a hell as described in the word of God. He cited Revelations xx, 11-15.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my 'own self.' Gilbert's drug store.

His Defense.

It was shortly after midnight, and the colonel had caught Rastus red-handed.

"Well, Rastus, you old rascal, you," said he, "I've caught you at last. What are you doing in my henhouse?"

"Why, Marse Bill," said the old man, "I-I done heard such a cacklin' in dis here coop dat I-I thought mebbe de ole hen done gone lay an' aig, an' I-I wanted ter git it fo' you' breakfas' while it was fresh, suh."—Harper's Weekly.

DEPENDABLE PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.

It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for thirty years and today hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

That religion is a sad failure which succeeds only in making us sad.

Danderine

GROWS HAIR
and we can PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes:
As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length.

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.)

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Inspectors of the national board of underwriters finished their inspection of the city yesterday afternoon and left last night for St. Louis. A thorough inspection was made of the city, but the inspectors were reticent ter.

Yesterday afternoon the inspectors pulled one of the new combination fire boxes at Fourth and Tennessee streets for a test run. They held stop watches on the firemen who made a fast run and laid a line of hose. The inspectors in Paducah were: E. Townsend, Charles E. Springer and J. Moss.

Not For Men

To Get Relief

When a woman's nervous and physical systems are tired out—worn out—they need something more than mere food, to refresh them.

They need medicines—tonic, herb products, which act as Nature planned they should do, in helping along the functions of life, when ordinary methods fail.

Cardui is not for men. There are many good medicines and tonics for men—but Cardui is only for women—its ingredients and its action make it so.

We know what Cardui will do for tired, worn-out, sick, miserable women, because we know what it has done. What it has done for others, it will surely do for you.

Cardui can be depended upon to help you, if you will give it a fair trial. Consisting only of pure, vegetable ingredients, it has nothing harmful in its composition, but acts, gently, and in a natural way, upon the womanly organs, and has been found, in thousands of cases, to restore sick women to health, after other medicines had failed.

Mrs. Margaret L. Pheral, of Newburg, Ind., writes: "I had sick headache, continuous hurting in my side; was always tired, and, every month, had such pains, I could hardly stand. I was treated by the best doctors in our town for more than a year, without any help. At last, I took Cardui, and it worked wonders. Before I had taken one bottle, I felt better. Now I feel better than in two years, and owe it all to Cardui."

Try Cardui, it will help you. Sold by 40,000 druggists. Get a bottle today.

BISHOP CANDLER

WILL PRESIDE OVER METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Recent Utterance of Man, Who Will Visit Paducah Next Month.

Bishop Warren A. Candler, who presided over the session of the Tennessee conference at Clarksville the last week, will hold the Memphis conference at the Broadway Methodist church, Paducah, November 16. The following in regard to conference appointments credited to him, may be of interest here:

"In his talk to the conference Saturday Bishop Candler inveighed severely upon the 'all too common practice of scheming for the best appointments.' He said Methodist preachers could find more excuses for not wanting to go to certain places than one could shake a stick at, and more good reasons why they should be sent elsewhere. A preacher, he said, should be willing to work for God anywhere. He said he was heartily tired of the schemers and their schemes.

"A preacher stated today, that Bishop Chandler had said that after the reporters were through making the appointments he intended himself to take a crack at it just to see whether or not the newspaper list could be improved upon. The bishop concluded his observations by declaring that he had a little inside information left on hand that the reporters had probably overlooked."

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of Tuesday says: "The government boat King, towing a barge of rock, stranded last Saturday near the Chain of Rocks. The barge sank. Efforts will be made to find the obstruction, thought to be a snag, which caused the sinking, so that it can be removed by the snagboat David R. Tipton. The Tipton is expected to arrive in St. Louis tomorrow. She has been pulling snags up the river.

GRAND JURY MEETS

TO INQUIRE FURTHER INTO ESCAPE OF JIM WHITE.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 20.—The grand jury of the October term of the circuit court resumed its sessions, having adjourned from Tuesday of last week. It was generally supposed that the jury had adjourned sine die.

A number of witnesses were examined in an effort to learn who were responsible for the escape of James White, the murderer of Fred Otterson. Among the witnesses examined were Capt. J. S. Harker, of the ferry boat Three States; Officer James Higley, Officer Jones, Louis Hasenjaeger, James Gilmore and a one-hand negro named Dee. Dee is said to be the negro who, at the request of White, went to his home and got the pistol with which Otterson was killed.

The negro Dee was placed in the county jail yesterday to await developments.

The negro watchman of the ferry boat Three States, who knew all the men who assisted in the escape of White, in a skiff the night of the murder, and who saw the whole proceedings, is still missing. He disappeared the day after White's escape.

News of Theatres

AT THE KENTUCKY.

Friday, Oct. 21—"Polly of the Circus."

Saturday Night—"The Girl From Rector's."

"Polly of the Circus."

In the company appearing in Frederic Thompson's "Polly of the Circus," with Miss Ida St. Leon in the leading part, which appears at the Kentucky tomorrow night are, in addition to a score or more of well-known actors, a number of circus people and circus acts which contribute not a little to the success of the play. The big third act sawdust scene represents a three-ring circus in actual operation—one of the most realistic stage pictures ever shown on a stage. One of the many features of "Polly of the Circus," is a trained horse, one of a carload carried by this attraction. The animal is called Bingo and is a thoroughbred. He was brought to this country by Barnum & Bailey's circus and afterward sold to the New York Hippodrome when Frederic Thompson was the managing director. During the summer time Bingo is one of the features of that great amusement place, Luna Park, Coney Island, New York City. Miss St. Leon and Bingo are great friends. That little actress says that her horse "can do almost anything but talk."

"The Girl From Rector's," which enjoyed a run of over 300 nights in New York, will be seen at the Kentucky Saturday night. The work is by the author of "The Queen of the Moulin Rouge" whose stay at the Circle was second only to that of "The Girl" at Weber's Music Hall.

The surest way to be absolutely worthless in a job is to think you're too good for it.
